The official opening of Lefkas Marina

In Saturday 7th of June 2003 took place the official opening of Lefkas Marina in the island of Lefkas in the Ionian Sea. It is the fourth marina managed by 'K&G Med. Marinas Management' of

'Kiriakoulis Mediterranean' group of companies and the group's second in the Ionian Sea.

Implementing a 21 Million Euro development project, the new marina has a capacity of 620 berths and approximately 280 for dry docking. Within this truly idyllic setting of artificial islands, bridges, canals, quays and areas both paved and with green lawns, facilities and services of high standards are offered such as Reception Offices, boat rental, cars and motorbikes rental, surgery, port police office, laundry, toilets and showers, shopping centre, restaurants, supermarket and cafe-bars. In the marina one can find a hotel and a conference centre as well.

Private management for Zea Marina

"K&G Med. Marinas Management" has undertaken the management and reorganisation of Zea Marina in Athens, planning to implement an 11 million Euro project to be completed before the Olympic Games of 2004.

By the time the works have been completed, the marina will have a capacity of 670 berths offering premium services and facilities.

Zea Marina is situated in the centre of Piraeus city in Athens, a very lively and busy commercial site, where the quayside is lined with restaurants, bars and cafeterias, thus making it an inseparable part of the social life of the city.

The main harbor of Piraeus, to the west of Zea Marina, is the ferry terminal for the islands of Cyclades, Saronic Gulf, Dodecanese and Crete.

Antique car rally!!!

On Friday the 27th of June, in Gouvia Marina in Corfu, took place the "ANTIQUÉ RALLY".

Every year the marina hosts this event for the nomination of the award for the most beautiful car. This year there were approximately 30 nominees from Greece and Italy. Spectators had the opportunity to admire these old beauties, and for a moment to travel back in time...by car!!!

The event was followed by a cocktail party and many surprises.
